The purpose of this meeting is for the Council to interview a candidate who has filed to fill the vacancy on City Council left by the resignation of Adam Pelatt. The term for this position expires on December 31, 2018.

The City received one application to fill this vacancy; the applicant is Gary Mounce.

The Council interviewed Mr. Mounce with the following questions:

1. What interests you about serving on the Creswell City Council?
2. How will you best contribute to the Council?
3. Do you have any priorities that you would like to see the Council achieve if appointed?
4. Describe any prior experience you have had serving on a non-profit Council or Board.
5. There are four Council Committees: Public Safety, Transportation and Public Works, Administration, and Finance. Of the four, which two would you be most interested in serving on and why?
6. This appointment expires on December 31, 2018. Do you see yourself being able to complete this term of service?
7. Do you have any questions you would like to ask the Council?

At 6:21 pm Mayor Stram recessed the meeting to allow time for the Council to review any notes they may have taken.
